

The State of Florida } Know all men by these County of Calhoun } presents that we Sealorn Pelt as principal and Jesse N. Bailey and Giddi Bailey as Securities are held and firmly bound unto Charles Butler in the sum of Forty Dollars for the true payment of which we bind our selves our administrators heirs and assigns by these presents -

Now the condition of the obligation is such that should the said ~~Sealorn~~^{Pelt} pay all costs and damages which may be assessed against him in a case of replevin wherein Charles Butler is Defendant then the above obligation to be null and void otherwise to remain in full virtue force and effect.

This Dec. 14th 1874 Sealorn Pelt
Jesse N. Bailey
Giddi Bailey.

In State of Florida } County of Calhoun } Personally came before me Seaborn Pelt who being sworn according to Law says that he is the owner of a work ox red head brand with a mark on the shoulder, that the said ox is wrongfully detained by Charles Butler of said County and State, under the wrongful plea of a gift from affiant, that the same has not been taken for tax, assessment or fine or seized under execution or attachment against the property of Plaintiff, that the value of said ox is twenty Dollars,

Sworn to and Subscribed Seaborn Pelt
