

Dear Sir

I Received yours of 2d of June and am very sorry I cannot bring of you as I went to Col Samuel Washington in order to wait upon to talk about this Matter on Thursday Morning and most of you I should have come to Mr Wornar Washington to you but Meeting with Mr John Ains who told me you were left the County and as I had not the Money it was useless to follow you and through the bad management of My people when I came over the Mountains last fall have had all My affairs reduced which I thought to have made you a payment out of and as I must be knowledge you have ever been a friend to the famer and have indulged us very much and I hope as you have indulged us so long you still will for bare a little longer and My Mother and My self will make you all the payment we can by the first of october there were 20 Bushells of wheat that were delivered to Edward Vile to see which Mr Leonard Washington promised to give credit on the bond for that is not done when William Crawford come down he will pay you part of the bond and My Mother and self will make you up all we can a guarantee that time and you may depend on the whole by the first of March I am Dear Sir your Most Obedient Son J. H. Thompson

Sept 12 1772